No. 08C3494

ORDER TO CONTINUE THE HEARING TO ALLOW RESPONDENT
MARCUS JONES TO SHOW CAUSE WHY HE SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CIVIL CONTEMPT

At the hearing on February 27, 2009, this Court allowed Respondent Marcus Jones to be heard and show cause why he should not be held in civil contempt of prior orders issued by the Court. The Court determined that the production by Respondent Jones still had not met the requirements of the statutory Request for Consumer Protection Information issued by the State of Tennessee, or of the parameters ordered by this Court.

Prior to making a final decision as to whether Respondent Jones should be held in civil contempt of court, the Court ordered Respondent to give his sworn statement to the State, at a date, time and place to be determined by the State. The sworn statement will, in part, be to determine if Respondent has produced all of the documents required by the Request for Consumer Protection Information and prior orders of this Court, and other areas of concern to the State, except those that deal with the tax returns submitted by Respondent, which will be reserved for a later date.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Respondent, upon a three (3) day notice provided by the State, shall appear before the State, for the purpose of giving sworn testimony in connection with the State's Request for Consumer Protection Information. Notice can be provided to Respondent by e-mail at marcusdonjones@aol.com and by certified mail.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Respondent, upon a three (3) day notice provided by the State, shall again appear before the State for the purpose of giving sworn testimony in connection with the State's Request for Consumer Protection Information, on the specific issue of financial information and tax documentation, pending the receipt of Respondent's tax returns from the Internal Revenue Service. Notice can be provided to Respondent by e-mail at marcusdonjones@aol.com and by certified mail.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Respondent, shall appear before this Court to show cause why he should not be held in civil contempt of court, at a date, time and place to be set by the State. All other requests, presented by the State in its Motion filed February 6, 2009, will be determined at said show cause hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, this ____ day of _____, 2009.
